Register for Next Year

Have you registered for next year? If you register by May 15 you can save $100 on your registration fees. Registering by May 15 will help save you money and will help us plan for next school year.

Yearbooks

KAES yearbooks were passed out this past Wednesday right after chapel. Students had a blast looking the year over in review and writing messages to their friends. A huge thank you to T’resa Weaver for working tirelessly to create this masterpiece of memories.

Summer Skills Sharpener

KAES would like to help your child retain what they have learned over the school year. We will provide summer spark workbooks for each grade level for $20 each. Students who complete the books over the summer and spend 20 minutes a day/four days a week working on them will be rewarded of a t-shirt and an ice-cream sundae at the beginning of next school year. “School stops for the summer but learning shouldn’t.” Pick up your

Chapel Update

Please join us Wednesday morning, May 17 at 8:20 am in the gymnasium for a very special chapel led out by our 5th grade class. We will have Pastor Russ back to share with us. Music will be led by 5th grade and we will have special music presented by Danica Hardeman, Elana Chacon, Ella Flores and Elizabeth Patterson.

THANK YOU

Thank you parents

KAES teachers want to thank all the parents and home & school for the teacher appreciation week. We were overwhelmed by all the VIP treatment we received. You made us feel like kings and queens.

Spring Concert

Thank you to everyone who supported KAES by coming to our spring music concerts on Sunday. It is so amazing to see all the musical avenues that are available to our KAES students. Pre-Kindergarten to 8th grade blessed us with their talents and abilities.

Congratulations Mrs. H

Yesterday the 2nd grade class threw a baby shower for Mrs. Henderson. Mrs. Henderson was strategically called to the office and while Mrs. Worth watched the class the students got ready to surprise her. The parents had everything already set up in another room, so the students joined them and were able to surprise their teacher when she entered. Mrs. Henderson is expecting a baby girl on September 22, 2017.

Library Books

All library books are due next week. Be sure to return your book(s) by Thursday, May 18. For each book missing there is a $20 charge. This fee will be reimbursed if the book(s) are found and returned. Thank you for your support through this great school year.
