just for fun

Q: How do mathematicians scold their children?

A: "If I have told you n times, I have told you n+1 times."

New KAES Gymnasium

We are excited to announce that KAES is planning for a new gymnasium. Currently we are in the process of fundraising to make it happen. This new addition will solve many challenges our school faces. It will bring our home games back home to KAES as well as solve some space issues and provide a safer place for our children to play and learn. We look forward to also being able to share our blessing with our church and community organizations. It is an exciting time to be at KAES. In all things we need to be good stewards and will break ground once the funding is secure.

Valentines banquet

What a night! Mothers, fathers, sons and daughters all came out for an incredible night that we will remember for years to come. I have never seen so many celebrities in one spot especially in Keene of all places; Lucy, Ethel, Marilyn, and Elvis. The entertainment was as amazing as the homemade burgers and root beer floats.

KAES students shared musical numbers of the 50's from "Lollypop" to "Unforgettable". I am already looking forward to next year. Thank you Home & School. You are amazing!

3rd Grade Chefs

This week on Valentines the 3rd grade visited Young Chefs Academy. This was a hands on experience for every student as they made lunch while exploring fractions.

Chapel Update

Please join us Wednesday morning at 8:20 am in the gymnasium as the Kindergarten leads out in worship. Devin Grady the pastor for Communications and Media at the Keene English SDA Church will be sharing with us. The Middle School "I Love KAES" essay contest winners will also share their winning essays. Kindergarten will be leading out in praise songs and special music.

Today was the Brain Games, a fast paced quiz game between the middle school classes 5th – 8th testing knowledge of what students have learned this year. It is very much like Jeopardy with the exception that there are four game boards and a 100+ contestants. This is the third of four school spirit activities that middle school classes compete in throughout the year.
